

Livingston Symphony Orchestra

2025-2026
Season

Anthony LaGruth
Music Director Conductor

Close to perfect. Close to home.

The Color of Sound

October 25, 2025 – Inside the Score

December 13, 2025 – The American Symphony

February 22, 2026 – Free Family Concert
The Sound of Red, White and Blue

April 11, 2026 – The Color of Nature

June 6, 2026 – Pictures

Livingston Symphony Orchestra 2025–2026 Season

All concerts at Heritage Middle School. Tickets online or at the door.

In our ongoing endeavor to deepen the connection between our listeners and the music we play, please Join Maestro Anthony LaGruth and the Livingston Symphony Orchestra as we explore the color of sound!

October 25, 2025 • 7:30 PM

Hector Berlioz: Inside the Score

- Roman Carnival Overture
- Symphonie fantastique

🎷 Includes a lecture-demonstration exploring Berlioz's revolutionary orchestration.

December 13, 2025 • 7:30 PM

The American Symphony

- Howard Hanson: Symphony No. 2 "Romantic"
- Amy Beach: Symphony in E minor "Gaelic"

🌟 First LSO performances of both works.

February 22, 2026 • 2:00 PM

Free Family Concert: The Sound of Red, White, and Blue

- Gould: American Salute
- Russel Peck: Jack and Jill at Bunker Hill
- Russel Peck: The Thrill of the Orchestra
- Gershwin: An American in Paris
- Copland: Lincoln Portrait
- Sousa: Stars and Stripes Forever

🎉 Celebrating America's 250th birthday!

April 11, 2026 • 7:30 PM

The Color of Nature

- Patrick Burns: Adagio for Orchestra
- Mahler: Symphony No. 1 in D Major

🌿 Featuring a new work by NJ composer Patrick Burns.

June 6, 2026 • 7:30 PM

Pictures

- Stephen Paulus: Voices from the Gallery
- Saint-Saëns: Danse macabre
- Mussorgsky: Pictures at an Exhibition

🎨 A musical celebration of visual art.

More info:
www.lsonj.org
973.980.1809

The program was co-founded by, and is currently supported by funds from, the New Jersey State Council on the Arts.